Hi AGENT 2

Just touching base. I'm still recieving margin call emails from your company. I have a total of 24.7 btc that I've sent to Blockfi. I have 2 loans with you totaling under $86k. So technically you have more collateral of mine than the actual loan size itself.

I know your working on correcting the issue that your company caused with selling 6.8 of my btc. I just want to avoid this same mistake from happening again.

Please assist when you have a moment today.

Thank you for your time in advance!
